Letter From The Rebbe

A letter of the Rebbe to a reunion of Camp Gan Yisroel

By the Grace of G-d
17th of Shevat, 5723
Brooklyn, N.Y.

To All Participants in the Reunion of Camp Gan Israel,

G-d bless you all,

Greeting and Blessing:

I trust you know that a few days ago (on the 10th of Shevat), we observed the Yahrzeit of the late Lubavitcher Rebbe, my father-in-law of saintly memory.

Camp Gan Israel, which you enjoyed so much during the summer, and which you are now gathered to honor, is one of the important activities of the Merkos L'Inyonei Chinuch, which the late Lubavitcher Rebbe has created for your benefit.

In this connection, I wish to tell you a story which my father-in-law related. Some of you may have already heard it, but it is worth repeating, for its lessons can never become "out of date".

The story is as follows: The first Lubavitcher Rebbe, known as the "Old Rebbe" (and about three weeks ago, on the 24th of Teveth, we observed the 150th year since he passed away) has a son Rabbi Dov Ber, who later succeeded his father as the second, or "Mitteler" Rebbe. Rabbi Dov Ber was known for his unusual power of concentration. When he was engaged in a study or prayer, he did not hear or see a thing around him.

Once, when Rabbi Dov Ber was engaged in study, his baby sleeping in a nearby cot, fell out of its cradle and began to cry. Rabbi Dov Ber did not hear the baby's cry and continued to learn. But the infants grandfather, the Old Rebbe, who was in the room on the upper floor and was also learning at that time, did hear the baby's cries. He interrupted his studies, went downstairs, picked up the infant, soothed it and put it back in its cradle. Still the infants father did not hear or see what went on around him. Later on, the Old Rebbe told his son: "No matter how important the thing is in which a Jew is engaged, one must always hear the cry of a child."

This story was told not only to parents, teachers and grown-ups who have to take care of children, but also to the children themselves, because this story has an important lesson for children also.

You see, everyone has a yetzer tov-which puts good ideas into the head, and a yetzer hora-which tries to put bad ideas into the head. The yetzer hora is the "older" one, for it comes early in the life of every boy and girl to tempt them to do things they shouldn't. The yetzer tov is the "baby".

It sometimes happens that just when a boy or girl has to do something really important, such as to study, do homework, and the like, they suddenly get an idea to do something else instead, which may also be good in it's proper time, but not now. For example, when it is time to do homework, the boy or girl wants to put their room in order, or run an errand. Worst still, when the yetzer hora tempts them to do something they shouldn't do at any time. When this happens, the yetzer tov "baby" feels pushed out of it's cradle, unhappy, and begins to cry.

The story I told you is to remind you to hear the cry of the "baby"-the yetzer tov, and keep it happy by doing the right thing at the right time, and not doing the wrong thing at any time.

I will conclude by reminding all of you that this coming shabbos we will read in the Torah about G-d giving us the Torah at Mount Sinai, when all Jews, young and old, boys and girls, declared with one voice: "All that G-d has spoken, we will do!" If you will remember this always-the yetzer tov will have no tears, and you, too, will be happy in every respect.

I send you and your teachers and parents greeting and all good wishes,

With Blessing,
M Schneerson

Letter From Executive Director

Dear colleagues and friends שׁי

Reunion is always a moving and emotional experience. Yet this reunion is special because the initial reunion was special.

In my travels over the years I have, as I am sure you have during your own travels, come to realize the unique and long-lasting deep impact of Gan Israel on the lives of the thousands who have passed through its environment over the four decades of its existence. Today, we reunite not only in remembering the past, but in realizing its impact on our lives up to the present.

Generally, summer is seen as a problem to be solved and a challenge to be met, with camp as the solution. But the Rebbe זצ"ל always sees challenges and opportunity. And so the Rebbe founded a camp as an island where torah and chassidus can be taught, undisturbed by the outside world, in a wholesome environment, something that is not possible in even the best yeshiva in the city. The Rebbe sees Camp Gan Israel as a kavadla (mold) where the character of the true chossid can be probably molded.

With the establishment of Gan Yisroel, the Rebbe started a revolution. Quantitatively, the Rebbe founded a global network of institutions serving thousands of youth, turning the summer vacation, months free of school, into a recreational and educational opportunity. Qualitatively too, the Rebbe created a program that transcends all barriers, a setting that comfortably serves the entire spectrum of Jewish youth, from the public school students whom Gan Yisroel introduced to Yidishkeit, to the Ben Torah, for whom it offered an insight into the light and warmth of Chassidus.

Gan Yisroel was entrusted with an enormous task and zechus and we remain dedicated to the continued fulfillment of this unique shlichus.

As we are blessed with the unique zechuss to mark the completion of the Yovel – Jubilee (and marking the beginning of the new “Yovel” with breaking א"ה the ground of the new acquisition), we hope and pray for new insights into the words and wishes of the Rebbe that will be translated into increased efforts that will hasten the Geulah speedily in our time, with the fulfillment of the prophecy, “סוהקיצו ורננו שכוני עפר” that, together with the Rebbe, we will march to the Geulah Sheeimah speedily in our time.

With esteem and affection, I remain,

Sincerely,

Avrohom Y Shemtov

Letter From Head Counselors

Tayere campers sheyichyu,

As the summer comes to an end and we begin to reflect on the unbelievable times we all had together we want to leave you with a few reminding words until next year when were all back together for another smashing year. Amongst all the activities and trips and exciting carnivals and outdoor barbecues and overnights that we shared together, was a message that camp told us. The pride of being a chossid and excitement of being a yid the chayus in davening and bentching are the daily ideas that we lived with for the last 2 months. But throughout the summer we learned many different lessons that we should think about and live with at home this year as well. Those of you that began to read the album of the Rebbe, should continue to read it and enjoy the valuable information that you can get from it.

Neilchah B'orchosov the winning theme of color war teaches us that we as Chassidim have to follow in the Rebbes ways, the album which has so many different details and facts about the Rebbe is a wonderful opportunity for you to learn many of the Rebbe's ways. Lets not forget the team of Kiyum Horisov, that we follow the the directions that the Rebbe gave us. The beautiful Siyum Harambam and project of sefer hamitzvos is a great way to fulfill this theme. Those that went to chitas club should continue to learn Chitas at home.

Tayere kinder, the point of camp is to continue all this at home. The Rebbe said that Gan Yisroel is a place that makes Chassidim for the whole year. When we get home from camp the first thing our mothers do for us is wash off the smell of camp from our clothing. Its our job to make sure that the Chassidishe Ruchniyusdike smell of camp is strong and heavy the whole year. When you walk down the street or play with your friends it should be obvious that there goes a chassidishe child that spent a month or 2 in the Rebbe's camp.

Remember the 3 bog war themes of oilam, shana and nefesh. These are the ways that you can change and affect your stay at home for the next 2 months. Oilam means that through mitzvos you are affecting the gashmiyus around you. Each of you has the opportunity to change the space around you, changing the world one piece at a time. Shana means time; you should be a person that never wastes one minute. We learnt especially from the Rebbe how to appreciate every second of our day. Finally Nefesh, that every Jew is special and important and that we too are special as a part of the yiddisher nation.

Campers besides all these lessons that you will live thought this year, you may want once in a while to relive camp, to put yourself back in the setting of the dinning room Friday night or the shul by Licho Dodi. We suggest that you take out this journal and find your favorite camp song and sing it with the enthusiasm of camp. Give your counselor a call to let him know how your doing and see how he's enjoying his year in yeshiva this way you'll stay connected to camp the whole year until next year when were all back in camp together for another unimaginable year of Camp Gan Yisroel in Yerushalayim Ir hakodesh Amen.

Letter From #1 Division Director

Dear campers of the #1 division,

You are probably reading this letter on the bus home from camp or it can be in middle of Chanukah vacation whatever the case may be it will definitely be after camp which means that you and I are no longer having a blast at CGI. But my memories of you will always remain strong. Do you remember our own special Minyan in the NOD tent or the late-night swims that we had when the rest of camp was sleeping in bed. And that awesome surprise birthday party you guys made me, I'll tell you I was really shocked when I walked into the room and you were all wide awake. Who could forget the Chof Av fabrengen the night before we went to the Ohel and the beautiful singing in 770. Of course you all remember our bonfire in the woods at the end of the first month, and our two amazing beev-o-wack's in the Rebbe's forest oh I almost forgot, the time we all went to canteen at night. How'a'bout the fun filled action packed days we had with chayusdike davenings & bentching's and the awesome sports that we played. The main thing is that when are a little homesick for camp in middle of the year you have all these wonderful memories to look back on and guess what ?????????? camp is only 232 days away.....

Love you all,

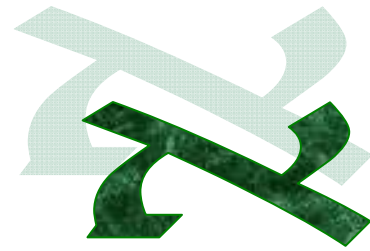

Yosef Kramer

Bun Aleph

To the greatest campers in the best bunk Alef,

Ok, its over, now what's fun's over and right into school we go. Sad news.

Honestly, which of you actually felt every single minute of this month, ok, half? Its as if it was all in one day. We woke up, got on the buses, came to camp, unpacked and just jumped right over the holiday mountain came back went on a hike, had a runaway, and had enough time to win Shabbos competition, go tubing, and have color war, all before night activity (lets just not start)! Guys all in all you were awesome

(most of the time 😊).
Davening, Bentching,
lets keep the N.O.D
spirit going throughout
the year and our cheer:

Bun Beis

We had an awesome time this summer, with you amazing campers and the amazing counselors you had (I hope that's not a matter of opinion). Starting from the very beginning with Holiday Mountain where we went go-carting and bumper boating, to the overnight with that huge bonfire and marshmallows and those little annoying bugs which crawl into your sleeping bag, the delicious hot dogs and the singing, when we made a birthday party for Yosef Kramer, when we woke up in middle of the night and went to (shh) Shop Rite, and when we almost went on a second run away but it turned out to be color war, and when we had that triangular food on our porch one night called pizza, to the extremely amazing Grand Trip, camp was just indescribably fun and exciting. There was also the side to camp. Starting with pesukim in the morning, going to davening and bentching with a chayus, and learning classes, camp just had so much to offer. Camp has been really fun, and you should make sure to take the memories of camp with you whenever and wherever you are. Make sure to use out what camp has taught you to its fullest abilities.

Bun Daled

Dear Bunk 'ד

You were the greatest, (okay let's not go too far!)

We had an amazing time together, like the time when we went on a runaway for pizza, came back, got screamed at by Yosef Kramer, and how we burst out laughing when Levi Rosenblum made a summer-sault.

Or how about the time when we woke up and thought that it was late, cleaned up the bunk, and than the p.a. went on and reveille had just begun. How about the hike to the gas station, the night swims with music, sports, pizza party, and much much more. The point is these were all lots of fun and exciting things, however we must also remember another reason why we were in camp and that is the most important, the basis on that which the Rebbe established the Gan Israel, and that is to gain in רוחניות. I would therefore like to remind you of some of the things our bunk did to help us be better Chasidim. Like saying every word in , שמונה עשרה חת"ת, looking at the picture of the Rebbe before we went to sleep and thinking about what we did to make the Rebbe happy. Those things you will take home with you! As the Rebbe said it will be the children that will bring Moshiach.

We wish you all the ברכות to use the things you learned in camp and help bring Moshiach now, and אי"ה next year we'll be together in Gan Israel in מקדש ירושלים with the השלישי with the coming of Moshiach!

Bun Hey

One day two young men woke up much as they did on any other ordinary day. However on his way to the bathroom Chezky Weiss didn't have his glasses on and being vision impaired without them he didn't notice Shmuly Schapiro getting out of his bed. As you can imagine the scene that followed, Chezky tripped over the leg of Shmuly causing both of them to crash hardly on the floor leaving both unconscious. When they were awoken they found themselves as counselors of bunk hay in C.G.I. Parksville, N.Y. as they were examining their bunk during line up and shacharis that day they observed a group of individuals that davened with such chayus and listened to every word their counselor told them. But then they woke up to the reality of C.G.I.

2007. Namely, bunk hay a group of characters each one more exciting then the next. Realizing that all the campers really wanted was an opportunity to have a fun time. The two counselors capitalized and decided to affiliate this need of spontaneous amusement and with the first rocking marriv the entire bunk won a limited edition C.G.I. picture album. But the fun didn't stop there with one amazing davening after another they went on to win shabbos competition followed by an amazing banana boating trip which we had an awesome time on. Even though the previous nights sleep was disturbed a crazy birthday party for Shmuley with so much popcorn we were sweeping for weeks. We enjoyed a great day at Holiday Mountain and a wonderful night at the beevowak. But the good times kept on rolling when we had a crazy scavenger hunt in Shoprite looking for Amoric Sulphate sodium. Finally an amazing smashing thrilling stupendous awesome fantastic grand trip to Hershey Park. But at the end of the day we all became a little closer as friends and Chassidim as we grew in the ways of the Rebbe and learned his Torah we hope you had as much fun in camp as we had and come on and join us with the help of Hashem for another amazing summer at C.G.I.

Bun Vov

To the most fantastic bunk on this planet.

As we sat in the early am, it hit us that believe it or not, yes the summer is coming to a close.

As we look back at the 4 or 8 weeks that we spent together, davening and learning, having exiting activities and trips, winning shabbos competition, the stories and chasidishe farbrengins on Friday night, and all of the fun and exiting things that we did this summer that should be looked at a few things that we learned this summer, that should be applied to our day life ever or actually especially after camp.

One simchas torah at hakofos by the rebbe, amongst the large crowd stood a chosid from Montreal was in the front of 770, as the rebbe was coming in and the Chasidim started forming a "shvil", this chosid attempted to jump into the "shvil", the Chassidim tried to stop him but he just jumped in and came face to face with the rebbe, and then told the rebbe: "I am a chosid from Montreal, and I promised a fellow chosid that I will not return without a brocha from the rebbe, that he should have children" and the rebbe gave him a him a bracha.

Dear campers, this chossid had no children either, but never the less he pushed himself in, to ask for a brocha not for himself, but for his friend, this is the kind of ahavas Israel that we should walk away from camp with, this and many other points that we lived with is what makes camps spirit go on through out the year, make sure not to forget tem in camp, the exiting activities and trips are just good memories of this great summer, but those points will be no memory, they will be the way we live and act through the year, and with this we will be zoche that where we came, back to gan Israel next year for another fantastic summer, it will not be in Parkville - but in Yerusholayim ir hakodesh.

p.s. even after camp make sure the davening and bentchings are not a national disaster.

Bun Zayin

Dear Campers of Bunk Zayin

I am sitting here at 3:00am and trying to think of something to write and this is what I came up with;

The Summer flew by so fast, all the time that we spent together, from the Late Nights to the Runaways, the trips, the parties at night, Shabbos Comp. which we won 1st Month and went Banana Boating (flying on the banana and...

splash!!!...

everyone is wet!) wow! We had a blast! The Bating Cages, Bowling, Go-Carting, Miniature Golf and so much more!!

But we must not forget the main point why we had so much fun as one Bunk together this Summer! is to take all the energy and put it into our Davening and Learning in order to Daven and Learn well and by us doing this we will have the Zechus to bring Moshiach and will be able to see the Rebbe with us down here leading us to Yerushalayim the final Geula. AMEN!!!!

Don't forget to keep in touch!!

Bun Ches

As I sit here at 3:30am with pen in hand (tears in my eyes)

I have one little problem is it me or did the summer feel like it flew right over my head.

I don't know where to begin with this amazing summer that we had together but I "gota" start at one point so lets see it all begun with the first day rolling of those fancy coach busses right in to camp unpacking our bags and here is what happened, well we just had a blast but il let you in on something's b.b.q., overnight where we sat together singing around that huge fire thanks to counselor m.c. runaway to pizza after that great boating activity (with the crocs) late-night's in canteen right of the basketball court (what an amazing game) the hike to Mobil (that no one knew) storyteller's we had, night-swim while camp was fast a sleep zzzzzzzzz. And all the other thing I cant say (the h.c.'s are coming)

But if we stop for a second and think is this the real reason why we came to the rebbe's camp? We are the rebbe's children we have to follow what the rebbe want's from us "negel-vasser" by our bed "krias-shmah" with "hamapil" every night (shahahaha)

Davening and benching with chayus (remember shukel, point, and look in side) sefer-hamitsvos of the day having ahvas -yisroel with our fellow bunk mates our pan to the rebbe on "chof av" about what a beautiful summer we had.

with this we sign our letter with tears wishing you a good and successful year and may we continue giving the rebbe and parents true "chasideshe-nachs" we hope you had as much fun as we did and hope to see you back next year in yerushalayim with heartfelt tears

Bun Tes

Dearest campers of the bestest bunk in the whole wide world,

First things first, I really want you all to know that I really enjoyed spending my summer with you. I can't imagine something that I would have rather done. Thinking back trying to remember some of the things we did together so many just come rushing so fast I feel like the whole world is spinning around me. Whoa Im getting dizzy. Ok it stopped. So just to mention a few... when we would randomly start silent dancing in the middle of the bunk, the time we made a goodbye party for someone who wasn't even awake, playing soccer in shoprite, the bunk tes strike, bbq in bed, popcorn party, playing broken telephone outside 770, Holiday Mountain, our 'runaway; (colorwar), and the list goes on and on and on. To try to sum this summer up in one word would be completely utterly totally impossible. From amazing to incredible, spectacular to stupendous, wacky to booming. None of them quite captures it properly. I think the best way to describe it is there really is no word. Just the thoughts and memories. Remember the lessons hachlatas and farbrangens, keep them with you forever. The craziest part about it is that it's over. Who would've thought that it would end so fast. I still remember the first day when your three counselors ran up, and then when... stop me quick before I get on a roll! Just enjoy life but don't drink and drive. Booyah!!!!

PS Don't mess cause were

Dear Bunk Yud,
I hope you guys remember the mad crazy hectic awesome fun filled nutty mind blowing summer we had together (WOW!!). Just to have a few crazy hectic... things: winning shabbos competition with the hope of going banana boating (but we got the other trip which was 10 times better), going on a runaway, getting woken up in the middle of the night with popcorn in our noses, or fressing hot dogs at night. That is a sneek peek of all the crazy hectic... things we did. Guys, one thing we did this summer is went "MUCHOLOCO". Keep it up throughout the year. Anyway I hope you enjoyed this summer together with us, cause we definitely enjoyed this crazy summer with you. Keep in touch. See you guys around. Don't forget that we may be little, we may be young, but were bunk yud and we get the job done.

Bun Yud Aleph

Dear campers of bunk Yud alef Doodz New and Mendel Goldberg sitting together and thinking of how to give our campers the best summer they've ever had!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

1.. 2 ..3 .. here we go with a smashing summer

With just a few days into camp we enjoyed our delicious pizza on our "run away".

Then with the bowling pins rolling down the lane with a spare "shoots it wasn't a strike"

And then with the three weeks we didn't give up the fun, with leagues in full swing, and especially because we have the best bunk in sports!

The beevo wak with all the songs we sang through the night, and the fire burning so hot, which gave us warmth all through the night.

OH we can't forget Mahapaicha war (bog war) that was a blast.

But then with the grand trip to six flags "great adventure" which ended it all off.

Oy! Aron and Yossi left us with only nine kids in the bunk!

AAAAAAA..... were not finished, here comes the second month in full swing, with another 4 kids which were added to our bunk, which makes it 13, oh man that's too much , but guess what guys we did survive .

Then with everyone unpacked we had a good soccer game with head counselor Isser New, which started us on the right foot.

And even though the first Shabbos we "didn't win" but guys we know the truth we really won.

Then with "puttin plus" which our bus got there the first with out getting lost, which gave us the most time in the park!

Then the beevo wak which was pushed off five times, and we went to take a bunk picture by the river, when Mendy Grossbaum's crocs floating away and Doodz new with tremendous devotion jumped in with his clothes and saved them from floating down the river.

Ah Shoprite was so good and fun especially being woken up at 12:15 AM, with everybody pushing his friend in the shopping carts, and then with the hot peppers, pickles and soda which we bought, just made it amazing.

Then with color war and the grand trip ending it all off.

Guys over all, we had a-lot fun

Bunk Yud alef we really hope that this summer will live with you forever, and with the same enthusiasm you had by Davening and Benching, you should go home with it and you should be a true Dugma chaya.

Have a good year in school, and iy'h we will see you back in camp next year in Yerushalayim with the Rebbe at our head!!!!!!!!!!

p.s. we really had the best time with the best counselors

pp.s. guys keep in touch

Sincerely your best counselors

Bun Yud Gimmel

Dear campers ,שי'
Now that the summer is over we look back and try to remember all the great times we had. Starting from the very first day when everyone was quiet and no one knew each other. All through the regular yet exciting days of camp from reveille in the morning (not to often) till lights out ("quiet!!") and all the activities, sports, ("can you put me on") boating, ("I'm not on Shmuly's boat") swimming, (for some of you) and all the great davenings we had ("how come I didn't get the picture"). During meals ("can I leave, the food sucks") and benching and canteen ("hey I ordered money!") and all the late nights we had, of course the runaways (color war) and all the exciting trips. Over all we had a blast! Make sure that you take everything with you into next year. The fun and of course the רחניות (chof av, fabrengens...) and you all should have הצלחה in everything. Grow up to be חסידישע in any yeshiva you may be and hopefully we will see each other in Eretz Yisroel with Moshiach now!

Dear Bunk Yud Daled
As after this amazing smashing exciting incredible fantastic summer that we all spent together now looking back starting from a runaway in middle of the night to N.Z.'s birthday party after lights out (and do you remember the pizza party we had for L.K.'s birthday?) and I'm sure you remember winning shabbos competition and having the whole division going crazy about it and then going banana boating. Do you remember the bbq we had (with bunk tes vov) and the runaway at lunch. Oh and how about the last night having a wild popcorn party in the middle of the night.

The blast we all had!
So take all the chayus you got in camp and it should continue throughout the year and through this we should be גאולה toזוכה

Remember the barbeque with all the raw chicken wings and don't forget Mendel Brafmans SKIRT STEAKS!! What about that "runaway" when we managed to rock the house in the Pizza Shop also. What a sight it was to watch you guys running out by the color war breakout "Did you really think we were gonna play baseball at 6am"? To close out even though Meir and Motti have no voices coming out of camp from containing you guys during meals and davenings, you guys were worth the sweat. To have group of action packed crazy campers in three words you guys "WERE THE BOMB". Now that your gone Sruli Giro what will keep a smile on your counslers faces!!!!

Bun Tes Zayin

Dear sweet sixteen

As we sit here typing this letter, it hits us for the first time that the summer is almost over. But doesn't it feel like just yesterday when you walked off the busses shlepping nosh and what have you, when just WHAM! the summer took off so quickly, that "I would have you a bet" that tomorrow is bog war but no it's really over. Or at least that's what they say. But we all know the mark we made on the rest of camp (e.g. bunk yud daled), a mark that's become part of our blood. So flip the frown, and feel the love as we reminisce on some of our own moments, that definitely stick out in our minds. Like Tzvika Tzwiebel's DS (that we counselors so cherished), or how 'bout Zalmy Kessler's week late b-day bash. Maybe the time Mendel Stock wanted to switch to Levi Tietel's bunk. Oh wait there was Chezky Wise on guitar for Yankel Sirota's late night party. And the time Yosef Brook left his seat with permission. Then there was Zevi Sufrin always borrowing our cell phones, and Shneur Marazow shlepping up packages daily. An all time favorite was when Dovid Goldberg beat everyone else in the batting cages. Or maybe it's the time we caught Eli Shimshoni and Moshe Dubinsky shukisiding the whole davening. Oh yeah there were the hot peppers Menachem Fogelman loved to share, and the weekly mp3 players Meir Chaim Brikman got. The time Ari Herson won a league game. Whateva there's been many more which I'm sure your all thinking of, but one things is for sure now that we head back to school, be it in Seattle, Morisstown or the Shchuna, we must all take with us the spirit of everything we did and learned here in camp. With blessings of a Shnas Hatzlocha and a Ksiva V'chasima Tova! Lets do this together now one two three—

To the campers of bunk yud zayin

Wow I cant believe its all over , do you remember the first time we went bowling ,and what about the over night that was fun ,and from there too bag war wow that was really funny skits well my team really won , hay lets not forget about the two shabbos competition that we won wow that golfing was grate I hit it so far , lets not forget about the grand bunk competition trip , which we could not get the boat moving until we made numbers that was fun , hay what about six flags we had a blast we went on all the rides and then all the first month campers left ohhhhhhh. But don't worry because bunk yud zayin jumped right back into it, and last but not least lets not forget about our grate davenings and benching , we should take all the chayus which we got through the summer and bring it into the year with us, and I guess will see you next year !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Bun Yud Ches

Dear Yossi, Berry, Naftoli, Shloimy, Chezkel, Nissi, Tani, Hershy, Mendy, Mendy, Mendy, and Mendel, all the Tayere campers of Bunk Yud Ches.

I just cannot believe how this summer has flown by. It seems like we just met yesterday, and it's already time to say good bye. But like we know, Chassidim never really say good bye, because we are all one family. Plus, you will always have the memories of the great times we had together. Starting with the first Shabbos of this month when we showed the entire camp what we're made of by winning Shabbos competition. Do you remember how we were supposed to go banana boating twice, but instead went bowling (oh yeah, and had a Friday afternoon BBQ). And you remember our runaway to the Pizza shop, how we showed the entire place how we bentch in Gan Yisroel. And how can we forget the chips and salsa, the grilled cheese, the weekly raffles, the bunk war, the trip to New York on Chof Av, and all the great stuff we had on Shabbos (Making all the other bunks jealous). With all of the exciting activities in between.

But as we leave, what we really want to remind you of is that all these things are only secondary. The most important things to remember is the way we used to Farbreng Friday night, about connecting to the Rebbe, and choosing life. Also to remember the Hachlotos we made together, in order to become true Chayalim of the Rebbe, like Mikvah, Chitas, and Sefer Hamitzvos (by the way, we will be calling you to make sure you're keeping it up). These are really the things that we've tried to instill within you, and that's the real message of Gan Yisroel. To end off with a brachah, that each and every one of you should carry the Chayos and spirit of camp in all that you do, and you should all bring the Rebbe a lot of Nachas until we are all reunited together with the Rebbe, Bimheira B'Yomeinu!!

P.S. Please don't forget to keep in touch!!

" And remember
Chasidim Zegenen zich

Bun Yud Tes

Dear camper's friends and
ummmm..... friends,
The summer has been really great,
We want more, and some
some more, and smores,
In fact we are officially naming this summer smores,
Because we honestly want
lots more, (OOO and the original
smores we are officially changing the name to snoozles) (Just wanted to make it official kinda like being the officially best bunk
in camp and other stuff)
Ummm.....Uhhhh....Yaaaaa....
.lets get to the point a lil,
We were thinking about the
summer gone bye,
We want to leave you with
a parting word,
So on the bus back home
you don't get bored,

(that rhymes by the way!)
Hopefully it will be entertaining and funny,
And you will reread it again
lyin' on your tummy, (that also rhymed by the way!!)
The summer started with a bang!,
Bim...bam....bum..yata yata
yata went shauls tongue,
(that didn't....ummmm.....I mean rhyme) (I love these parenthesis thingys by the way, you can write anything
totally irrelevant right in the middle of everything, kinda
reminds of our davenings
ahem ahem..... to all those who were worried
about the price of tea in china during davening)
The summer went by and
we had lots of fun,
The best in everythin we

were,
Makin jokes after lights
out was our frontier, (ask shaul perlstein for the definition, I just used it
cause it rhymes, haha ha-
ha watta waaa weee
waaaa hee hee)
Bunk Yud Tes keep up the good work,
In saying chitas everyday
your brains should lurk,
It really is a must,
That's why I make such a fuss.....

Give the Rebbe nachas
in all you do, that is the
pencil point of bunk

Bun Chof

Dear campers of bunk Chof:
You rock,
Keep in touch
p.s.

Before the summer began we did not know what to expect; being that this was our first time working as counselors at an overnight camp. Fortunately all those pains and stomach cramps (which we thought were being caused by Yeshivah's old food) came to a stop once camp began. Everything began to flow very smoothly as soon as the buses pulled into camp and we finally met up with you guys.

The first day of camp started off with a bang. Unfortunately that bang was caused by all the thunder and stormy winds, but that did not kill our spirit.

Besides for all the fun and enjoyment of campers tackling their counselor, possibly damaging his brain, we enjoyed many other times together including the amazing and unforgettable chayos of bunk chof during davening and other fun stuff. I mean, where would we be without all that shouting and yelling during davening and benching; and no I don't mean the yelling of me at you.

Anyways, I remember our first runaway to the pizza store, now that was some great pizza! Mmmmm!(That was for you nachis).....

The point is what did we come out of this summer which had such a great effect on us that we all grew on including ourselves? The first thing I definitely learned is that camp like the Rebbe always said, is the best time for a camper to grow spiritually and physically. The only difference is that I got to see this with my own eyes with a bochur's point of view. You may have not realized it but things always seem different from the outsider's perspective. Uvachain(therefore), I am telling you that you did not realize, but we did. So don't give up on yourselves you guys are doing great even though it may have not looked like it at times.

Since you are all getting close to your Bar Mitzvah I think it was a good experience that you all got a sense of hiskashrus to the Rebbe and understanding more about what responsibilities are to be taken on in the next stage in life.

That was just from the heart and we are sure that all you guys feel the same.

But wow I can't believe summer is over, it feels as if yesterday we all came to camp and it was the first day. Gee if only school flew by just as fast. But after deep contemplation I figured it out and its very simple, this summer flew by because we were having such an amazing, fun, and exciting time together. Just imagine if you were able to have this summer recorded on video, you would be the most tired person, just going over it again and again and never sleeping; now that would be awesome!!! Well maybe that would cause some bad side effects, and of course I would get the blame, so let's just scratch that brainstorm.

So come, let's walk down memory lane with a box of Kleenex in our hands and cry together from true happiness: Bowling was first, that felt like a freiliche wedding. Oh, of course, the beevowak where we had that crazy water fight, gosh that was fun. The biggest fun was Six Flags where one of our campers went on his first roller coaster. The crazy thing is that that first roller coaster was nitro, yah! That takes a lot of guts, "thumbs up". Remember those farbrengens we had together. Well if you had too much mashke and don't remember then all I have to say was that it was so inspiring that my neshama was just jumping out of my body.

Therefore I really hope you guys had a great summer and continue to take this fun and enjoyment in Yiddishkeit and stretch it throughout the school year, thus having a great year. So keep in touch, technology allows that to happen in many ways including email, cell phones...

Moshiach Now!!!

Sincerely Your Counselors

Bun Chof Aleph

To our dear campers:

I would first like to say that we truly enjoyed spending this past summer together. Coming into the first month with 10 out of 12 M.M. we were convinced it would be hard, but thankfully each one of you stood out in his own special way. For example M. Raskin with your interesting pants and M. Kugel with your smart lines etc. We started off with wining the first Shabbos competition and finishing off with wining the last Shabbos competition and of course unofficially bunk competition. The second month we started off with lots of Ahavas Yisroel and welcoming the new campers. Now with 13 campers it became interesting because the bench was always full and the table was always empty, but yet nevertheless the food was always gone thanks to our triple portion eater. With parties every night we were still well awake in the morning for a rocking Shacharis and especially those who had the Koach to wake up early to go to Mikvah and by lunch when we received emails in 4 different languages, nevertheless we still worked together make a great bunk. Capture the flags, pop corn parties and hikes were just some of the main exciting things we did and let's not forget the Farbreingen on Chof Av where you all said such wonderful things and seeing everyone's talent during bunk war. Coming into the New Year let's keep in touch and take with us the Chayas, warmth and excitement in Torah and Mitzvos and bring Moshiach now!

P.S. for a small Hachlatah let's continue to look at a picture of the Rebbe every night and remember if you think about the Rebbe the Rebbe will think of you.

Bun Chof Beis

To my most dearest bunk Chof-Beis:

When you are reading this letter you will possibly be on the buses back home, or two weeks into the school year, bored and looking for something to read, or it could be by Chanukah vacation as you were remembering something about camp and you decided to pull out the Journal. One thing though is definite, it will certainly be after camp. So I write you these words, words of farewell and saying goodbye yet through this we are never truly parted one from another.

Just one final request, take whatever camp has taught you and cherish it, keep with you for use in difficult times. Those far-brengins Friday night, or the late night parties with popcorn all over our beds, the overnight, color war and so much more. It's all this that makes camp exciting, but there is much more to camp that you don't remember until after the summer. Like your funny learning teacher, who made learning fun, or the night when your counselor sat with you on the porch and talked. Remember it all and when your feeling sad just remember the good times we had and think, "I'll be back next year". Until then Goodbye Gan Yisrael Goodbye.

P.S. Chassidim never really say goodbye

If I got a nickel every time

Yossi miller: mentioned something about Pittsburgh.

Yoseph Levidan: said "guys this time we can win it".

Yankee Baron: sang like he was a star .

Chemi Lazarus: said C'mon guys in his S.A. accent.

Mendel Keller: went crazy and cried Hiiiiirssshhhyyyyyy.

Dovid Lokshin: went to talk to Sholom Lazar.

Levy Yaffe: blamed a fight on someone else.

Shaya Itkin: complained he just wants to do nothing.

Yisrael Luchins: followed shaya itkins opinion.

Mendel Rosenblum: did a full hour of silence.

Reuven Zuluaf: told the counselors to shut up and that they're mean.

Shloime Finver: complained that Shloime is the worst counselor ever.

Then I would be a millionaire!

טייערע חברה אפ באנק כ"ג:

I'm not gonna write about all those fun times we had together which of course you'll never forget, like all those regular letters. Rather let me tell you one last story.

Late one night in 770 the bochorim were having an argument. "You know, before we get married the Rebbe sends every one of us a letter, each one has the exact same words on it, now is it just that they bring a pile of papers in front of the Rebbe and the Rebbe just signs on them or is it that the Rebbe is really writing to me a letter for my chasuna?" A few weeks went by and the chassan that said that the Rebbe doesn't really mean me went for dollars. When he pasted by the Rebbe the Rebbe gave him a dollar, and as he was about to leave the Rebbe called him back and looked at him and asked him "did you get my letter?".

This story really brings out everything we fabrengead about this summer. Who we are to the Rebbe and how much the Rebbe cares about every single one of us.

So when you go back home and you're having a fun time running around your house 20 times acting the way a child of the Rebbe is supposed to act, and then after a long day lying in your comfortable bed looking at the picture of the Rebbe hanging in your room, of course thinking about the davenings you davened, benching you benched, fun you funned... remember all those things we spoke about by night.

Negel vasser, mikvah (even if it means breaking ice), things the Rebbe did by davening, watching a video of the Rebbe before you go to sleep, and all the other things we spoke about. Don't just keep it for yourself but rather tell it to your friends until the whole world becomes Gan Israel.

So טיייערע קעמפער'ס I finish off this letter, אי"ה when you receive your letter from the Rebbe, hold it proudly, look at it and say to yourself "this is my personal letter".

and remember to keep in touch until we meet again together with the Rebbe! בקרוב ממש!

Wow it seems like the summer just started but it's already over, well boys I guess you could say that's a good thing it means we had a great time with all the fun and games.

Now thinking back I wonder what the summer would have been like if we weren't the oldest bunk or if we would not have "broken out" the bevowak? (Whatever that word means). And how about the kid from Alabama yea! I mean we had so many great experiences I could just go on and on but you know that the journal guys don't let me take up more than one page so we will cut it short kinda thing.

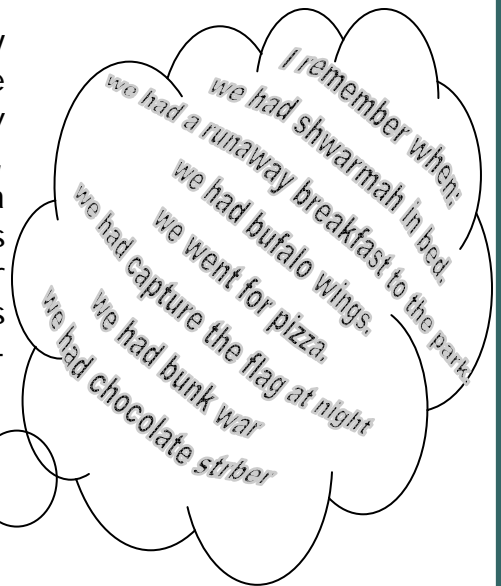

Lets talk a little about the bunkhouse now we got loads of friends like binky the skunk and two little mice, they just love the warm hospitality we give them, like all the food we leave open, and the sticky candy stuff on are beds especially m.t....

How about the questions by lights out with m.w. creative answers, like tishah b'av mixing it up with tu beshvat, I think we should write a book called the world's greatest answers! Now for the positive all the things you boys learnt all the min-hagim and halochos...

Wow the printer is going to stop workin in a minute so I better hurry up.

So getting to the point (TOYCHEN COME IN) I am sure that all that we did gave nachas to the rebbe and through all are actions we defiantly brought moshiach closer and iy"ch next year gan izzy 50++ in yerushalaim with moshiach!

Hey everybody, according to me camp is the greatest so far. From reveille in the morning to lights out at night. Basically what happened a few days ago was that as Shua announced that there wouldn't be color war. My bunk was real mad so my counselor told us after lights out that he was real mad so he told us we're all going to go on a run-away in the morning to the park. Well, my whole bunk fell for it and they even brought their back-packs. Now it's color war, gotta go.

I'm from Livingston, N.J. and I'm ten years old. I love Gan Israel and the activities and trips are lots of fun. IY"H I will be coming back next year.

Well this is my first year in camp and I think that it was very energizing for my neshamah. I liked best the singing. Dancing and fa-brenging on shabbos was great.

My name is Shmuly B. Thank you Rabbi Futerfas, my counselors, and Camp Gan Israel for giving me such a great summer.

Dear campers and staff,
I don't understand why camp flies by so quickly. From the head staffs speech to winning shabbos competition. I heard the speech and then it was already bogwar and then the grand trip. Today I feel upset to leave but I know that I had an amazing year.

What If...
 Shaul Perlstien wouldn't be the shoomama?
 Boris would actually do night activity himself?
 The p.a. actually worked?
 The canteen would be open to campers?
 Moshe Liberow would actually do something?

Color war wouldn't be broken out at 6:00 a.m.?
 Camp would sponsor water bottles again?
 Ronald Perlman came to camp this summer?
 Levi Shapiro would not have a fan club directed by M. Liberow?
 Yossi Perlstien would use a microphone when he screamed?

Well... um... okay well it all stated WAR"! when we came up to the bunk house. Our counselor told us we're going tomorrow morning on a run-away to Shoprite. So in the morning we lined up in our bunk (as always) and when the van beeped we ran out to get together and then we heard the staff scream out "COLOR

I want to say, camp is a very good place. It is very fun and I think camp should continue. Learning classes, activities are fun and trips, overnights everything in camp is amazing.

Camp was great. The trips were awesome. The bunks were great. In the learning classes we had an excellent time. This year they had something new called excel cards. At the end of the week the learning class with the most cards in each division would get to play sports during learning class and a hike in the forest. The winners of bunk competition would get to go rafting. All in all camp is the extra super place to spend your summer.

Camp was so much fun. I learned a lot and I learned who I really am. The summer was packed with fun shabbos competition was a blast, bogwar was outstanding, grand trips, beevvowak were all amazing. One think that really touched me was going to the Rebbe on chof av. I hope to come back.

I had a great time in camp. I still remember when I came to camp. Time flew by so fast that I didn't have time to change my shoes. I also remember when we went on our first trip, this trip took place in "HOLIDAY MOUNTAIN" we had so much fun there, we went miniature golfing, bumper boating, and much more. Then we had "COLOR WAR", it was a pretty strong breakout, early in the morning my counselor woke me up. Then my counselor told me and my bunkmates that we are going on a runaway, but on the other hand all the other counselors told their kids that they are going on a runaway. There were two vans coming up on the hill, so when the van drivers honked their horns all of us burst threw our bunk doors and scam color war and that's how we broke it out.

Camp was so much fun and I had a really great time. Form watching Rebbe videos every night to the ground trip. Oh, and don't forget the color war breakout when they said there would be a runaway at 6:00 a.m. and then beep beep "COLOR WAR"! Anyway this summer was one of the best summers in my life. Even though Ronald

This year camp was so much fun. The breakouts were excellent and the runaways were excellent and so were the trips. It was probably the best summer of all the years that I was here. I'd like to thank all the staff and especially my counselor, waiter, and learning teacher for making this year enjoyable. I hope to be back next year but next time in Yerushalyim with Moshiach!

I was sitting in the dining room waiting for Rabbi Shemtov to come in for his birthday when somebody pulls me out of the dining room that I am going to be a general in bunk war. I was really blown away. First of all that there was bunk war and even more that I was general. They also told me the team names were ani Idodi and dodi le and my team name was dodi le. Then me and the lt. general worked on the play, scavengers, cheers etc. We came back in the dining room and they broke out bunk war. Everybody was having fun. We had plays, scavengers, halacha skits, and songs, we had a great time. That day they broke out the beevowak and the night of the beevowak we had a mini grand sing. The next day they announced the winners of bunk war and lucky for me I won!

What ifs of bunk war:
we were good and 'chayosdik' by the birthday party
the captains would find out before they were announced
they gave us more time for the Halacha skits
the second play was a little longer

Dodi Lei didn't make the backdrops for Ani Ledodi
they would announce the winners by the bonfire
Zalmy Sandhouse would allow everybody into the pool area
we wouldn't have such devoted staff

WHAT IF...

There really was no color war this year
there was no brochos channel
H.C.I.N. lost his voice again
Yossi Perlstein had settled in Montreal
H.C.S.B. was not a gost
Moshy Liberow didn't come back
there was no news board

Hello there my name is Mendel Kugel you may have heard of me or not, I'm what many of you would call an average kid, not too smart and not absent minded either, if you know what I mean. Anyhow here is my story:
I came to camp like every any other expecting quick victory in bunk competition as every year, and boom the worst bunk in camp wins bunk competition it hits just like color war, but we weren't giving up just then and besides we never won first month anyway. So with new strength we shot up like a rocket but never came down and I'm sure that this month we will "prevail"

Learning Directors

A letter from your Learning Directors

Dear campers,

All of us know the reason why we came to camp, to have a fun time and to... learn. What none of us expected was that the fun would be in the learning.

Yup, there were some quite exotic ideas, like growing 5 squash plants, 13 tomatoes, hot peppers, and some cucumbers in order that we should learn our Brochos. But overall we agree on the fact that we all looked forward to the excitement around the Learning Program-(especially your turn for doughnut making or the Barras Experience)!

Lets us also mention the great excitement that was on your faces when you heard us on the PA "120 seconds to Learning Classes", when you all eagerly ran to spend some precious time with the best learning teacher around. The interest that you placed in what was learnt, whether it was the interesting Gemaras or the beautiful Halacha Booklet or even the Hiskashrus, left you when learning class was over still glued to your seat, and if it weren't for the other parts of the learning program you most probably would not have gotten up.

We know the many times you went to just look at the talented crafted Kailim in the lobby just trying to get a really clear picture of the real Kailim. You read the Shmooze and all the rest of the news until you could say it all by heart and feel like you are living the adventure of Feivel & Shepsel. You repeatedly watched the current series of the Brochos Channel for there was always more that you missed and weren't satisfied until it was blasting out of your ears. Don't get me wrong hours on end were spent by your learning teachers to make it all happen, and you can thank them for that.

Although the summer flew by as a result of all the fun we shared together and it's a shame it's all over being that we stand in the month of Elul it's a great time to think back at the summer we just spent, besides for the great memories which will come to mind, spend some time to think of the message behind all that we did. It's an opportune time to begin or continue what we or you're learning teacher asked from you, like Chitas and Sefer Hamitzvot you can begin or continue, although you might not be receiving a freeze pop every day you are still, and be part of the club that joins thousands around the world in learning daily the same thing, even if its making sure you have Neigal Vasser by your bed before you tuck away for the night, or even just being ore careful on the Brochos you make, or really any other thing. For in such an auspicious time you want to make sure the upcoming year '68 is going to be done right, and there is no better way of doing that then keeping in mind those precious times of the learning Program 5767!

K'sivah V'chasimah Tova- all the best for the upcoming year,

Rabbi Barras, Yossi Perlstein, & Chaim Zaklos

Teach- Message

Tayere campers:

After teaching you for a full month, I don't really have much left to say... but after all, I can't just not write anything. So let me just tell you a simple but great thing that happened about 25 years ago.

On many years, the Rebbe would 'farbreng' with all the Chassidim on his birthday. The year was 5742. The day was Yud Alef Nissan, The Rebbe's 80th birthday. All the Shluchim waited anxiously for the day to come, for it was expected to be an extra special farbrengen, for the Rebbe was turning 80. As the day came closer, the excitement grew. But on that year, to the Shluchim's dismay, the Rebbe let all shluchim know that they should stay in their cities doing their shlichus rather than coming into New York for the birthday. Head Shliach of the Rebbe to Texas, Shiminke Lazaroff, was walking down Kingston ave. in crown heights. The Rebbe's personal secretary, Rabbi Hadakov, confronted him, asking him, "how is it that you're here?" to which he replied, "I just came to buy fish for Pesach...". Head Shliach of the Rebbe to France, Rabbi Muleh Azimov, for some reason decided to make his son's Bar-Mitzvah in New York, rather than in France.

I'm sure the Rebbe would love to have had all his shluchim together, especially on a day like Yud Alef Nissan, but for some reason, the Rebbe told everyone to stay where they were and not to come. And I could imagine how much every single shliach would love to come in and would surely do so if not for the Rebbe's request that everyone stay. But they didn't come. Because a Chossid is supposed to do what he knows the Rebbe wants from him, and not what he thinks and convinces himself the Rebbe wants from him. Big difference. This is one of the things that we could learn from that year's Yud Alef Nissan.

So kinderlach, you should have an amazing year, hatzlocho in everything that you do, and make sure from time to time to make the Rebbe smile, giving him lots of nachas, by doing what we know he wants us to do. This is what's going to bring the day when you'll be able to say L'chaim to the Rebbe, and the Rebbe back to you.

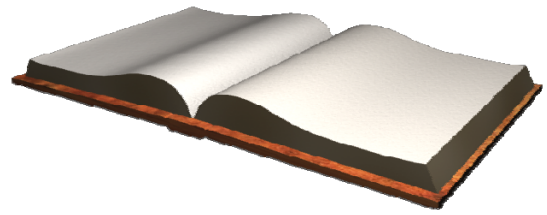

L'chaim L'chaim.

Your overtired learning teacher,

Levi Shemtov
(Uruguay).

Feive And Shepsel

Dear journal reader,

It's me; a distressed and distraught Feivel, writing a goodbye letter for the journal.

"Hey Feivel! Don't forget about me."

"Don't' worry Shepsel; I wouldn't forget about you in a billion years. I know that you also want to write this letter, but you're not distressed and distraught. Even though camp is coming to a close you're still able to laugh and smile"

"Of course; don't you know my motto: Don't cry because it's over; smile, because it happened?"

"I thought your motto was: 'croc's on the front and heelys on the back keep your feet moving on track'"

"Now that you mention it, I do remember saying something like that. You know, we had such a fun time this summer I would really like to help you write the goodbye letter"

"Okay, but now I'll have to start over..."

This is a goodbye letter from Shepsel and Feivel Yovelshnook. As camp is coming to a close we would like to say goodbye to all of our friends, especially to those of you that read our daily adventures in the 'Shmooz' on the Learning Program Daily News Board.

You may be wondering, how did the Shmooz come about. It's actually a long story, but I think now would be the best time to say it.

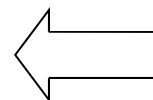

If you read about our adventures you'll see that Shepsel and I are best of friends. In fact, we even built a tunnel to connect our bunkhouses when we couldn't be together (and ended up saving the whole camp). This doesn't mean that we don't have our differences. For example: Shepsel, who's right now spacing out, always complains that I ask too many questions.

"Right Shepsel?"

"Shepsel I saw my counselor saying Kapital Chof yesterday I was in middle of figuring out how old that make him. You're always asking me so many questions."

See what I mean? However, even though we have our differences, we remained best of friends. In fact, all of my bunkmates are a little different - and I think that's exactly what makes us such a perfect bunk, you know, everyone offers their own little thing to benefit the whole bunk. I'm really going to miss them. In fact I'm going to miss the whole camp we had such a fun time together even though at the end of the day, I think that I spent the most time with Shepsel.

Shepsel and I did all kinds of crazy things together. From spying on the staff after lights out and ending up in the Beis Hamikdash, to getting a free ride from Shaul Perlstien. From unearthing the GM's tool and building tunnels, to running away from camp to save his counselor.

We did so many wacky things sometimes I feel that we aren't regular campers. You know, those campers that wake up in the morning do cleanup, lineup, snacks, Shacharis, breakfast, learning classes, break, learning classes, wash up, lunch, you get the point - the campers who see six flags as a great adventure.

Don't get me wrong, I think all these things are great, awesome, and fantastic. In fact camp wouldn't be the same without them. Can you imagine camp without breakfast lunch and supper? - that would be a very hungry camp. Or a camp without learning classes, that would my whole summer unproductive - do you know how much I learned in learning classes that I never knew before?

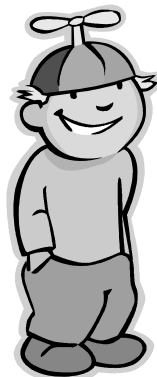

All I'm trying to say is that for some reason I went on more adventures than the average camper which makes me, um, unique. Although my propeller hat does a fine job at making me unique, I realized that the average camper wanted to hear about my uniqueness which resulted from my many adventures, so I started to write down the stories, but I couldn't find anyone to fund the publishing.

Finally the Learning Program agreed to publish my adventures on the condition that learning teacher Chezky Akerman will slightly alter the adventures, adjusting them with content worthy of the Learning Program. Now you know why I first started publishing my stories on the leaning board. Once they posted the first issue of the Shmooz, the demands for more skyrocketed, I had no choice, but to share with the staff at the Learning Program more & more of our adventures.

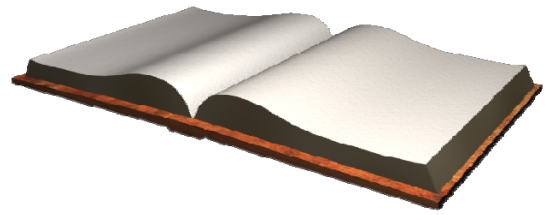

There, now you know how the Shmooz came into being.

"Hey Feivel, I figured it out; my counselor is nineteen!"

Learning Program

Learning and More...in CGI NY, 5767

The learning Program in Gan Israel this year was not just about learning, it was about Exploring!!! This summer we all have excelled greatly as a result of the amazing curriculum which was put together by our Learning Directors of 5767. We learnt different Gemaras that discuss the Beis Hamikdosh and its Vessels, as well as Moshiach, who will be here speedily in our days. We learnt in Hlacha "Birchas Hanenin" from a text book (compiled by learning director Chaim Zaklos) from the Alter Rebbe's "Seder Birchas Hanenin", which guided us through the many details that regard the Brochos we make. In the evening we learnt various Chassidishe Inyonim.

But that's only the beginning, for this year learning has taken us past the Seforim and basic classes, in a most exciting hands-on way!!

Hands-on means practically learning! The walk down the hill had excitement on the right hand side as you bumped into a home-made vegetable garden, the "Ha'adamah Garden". Planted and taken care of daily the Ha'adamah garden brought plants and vegetables to reality, so that we will never need to question if a food is a veggie or a fruit!

The lobby this year was surrounded by loads of information given over in a fun and exciting way! Displayed in the window were models of "Kailim" from the beis Hamikdosh, hand made by the learning teachers, and filled with talent and creativity. The following Kalim stood proudly on display, the "Aron" with its "Keruvim", the outer "Mizbaich" with its fire places, the "Shulchan" filled with its breads, the inner "Mizbaich" and the "Menorah", and they are all in full detail, giving us a clear picture of the Kalim of the Beis Hamikdash in a fascinating way!

Covering the wall in the lobby was no plain empty wall, but rather a wall loaded with information that was updated daily on the

"Learning Program Daily News Board", which reminds me, there were the "Top stories", "Question of the day", "Halachah of the day", "Pigam of the day", "Minhag of the day", "Picture of the day", the daily Sefer Hamitzvot & Hayom Yom (in Yiddish and English), and the "Shmooz" which us on adventure with "Shepsel" and "Feivel Yankelshnook" through tunnels and the beis hamikdosh were shepsel was almost lost, bringing out the Gemarah being learnt!!!

Leaving no corner or even sound of the lobby empty, playing in the lobby was the "Brochos Channel" on "WGIN" (World of Gan Israel News). One of the biggest hits to Gan Israel something we all enjoyed together; we watched how to make breads with Bainish, Schnitzel with Ti'harah, Falafel with Yarom, Gefilta fish with Hymi and Frankie, and all the general brochos we make on the lost in the woods one. That was one thing none of us will forget that quickly!

Hands-on activates changed our Learning Classes also!!! Every so often, groups of learning classes made their way to the kitchen and washed their hands to make some "Brochos" themselves. We each received some dough which we saw being made and began to shape our very own "Doughnut". We then watched it being placed into a deep fryer. As the doughnuts fried, we got our very own tour of the "Ha'adamah Garden" and "Kailim". Then we returned to pick up our chocolate glazed doughnuts. A real tasty way to learn some brochos!

Then there was the "Barras Experience"; following Rabbi Barras through camps forest. While showing us the beauty of the forest, he filled us with stories and facts new even to the oldest of classes, returning us to camp filled with adventure and "Yiras Shamaim"!

That's all besides for the recently established "Excel Card competition", which awarded the best learning classes weekly, bringing learning to greater heights!

If you thought three learning classes was enough, well there was almost a fourth! That afternoon freeze pop, that time every day after lunch when we flooded th BMD Dining Room where we anticipated the daily "Chitas Club". Where a learning teacher says over the days Chitas and we received a freeze pop or a can of soda for attendance. For the records Chitas Club '67 has broken the record by recruiting over 50% of camp to Chitas Club on various occasions.

All that didn't just happen overnight, thank you to the dedicated Learning Directors and the devoted learning teachers who spent hours daily putting all this together, learning in Parksville, NY 5767 is going to be a memory forever!

Take it all with you!!!

Truly yours,

The Learning Program '67

This article was written in a form of tribute to Hashem for Ti'harah and Bainish finding their return route to Parksville!

Nights, Whacks, and Sleep Walking

It was rumoured that Gan yisroel was to be whacked two nights ago by a giant 'Bevo'. We personally arrived at Gan Israel to obtain the complete story of the whacking, but were disappointed to find the camp deserted with just the BMD & Masmidim sections of camp remaining. Apparently the rest of camp departed on some sort of Overnight. The truth hit us hard; our sources of a bevo-wak were misinformed.

Fortunately however, at that precise moment, news reporter Fanader-Klieber on a personal vacation down at Neversink camp grounds. By a mere coincidence, Camp Gan Israel were also having their overnight at Neversink campgrounds, Fanader-Kleiber used this opportunity to interview several campers.

One camper, Ari H. aged eleven years old, claimed not only to roast hot dogs and marshmallows, but to roast his own pants. He has a gaping hole in his pants to prove his story to any non-believers. Another camper claimed to diligently stay up the whole night assiduously assuring the bonfire's continuity throughout the night. His counsellor however, had different plans. Fighting against boo's and no's he put himself to the task of extinguishing the fire. At the end however, the campers were the ones who got their way; they reignited the fire from one lone spark.

We however, being unfortunately stuck in camp, decided to sleep over for the night. Originally planning to leave early the next morning, we only woke up from the rumble of yellow school busses pulling into camp with loads of excited campers. We then decided to stay another day so our trip wouldn't go to waste, and don't worry we weren't sorry. Thursday in camp was real fun. The best part of the whole day was to watch a quarterback throw a long pass that was never caught, because the wide receiver had either fallen asleep while running, or was in fact never up, but was sleep walking.

We were planning to stay over another night; the reason being that we heard from a group of campers that there was a "staff play" scheduled that night. It saddened us however, when we find out that we were forced to leave due to an imminent thunder storm, at the end we were contented to learn that there was in fact on staff play was – that was the second time this week that our sources were misinformed.

The C.g.i New York Times

ALL NEWS THAT GOS WELL WITH COCOA

Ready to enjoy the best staff play so far this year, we sat down and tried to relax, but couldn't, because our seating grounds were in reality rock-solid standing grounds; it's a good thing we needed the bathroom about 3 and a half times otherwise our feet would have permanently fell asleep (Not to mention all the attention we got every time we stood up, from people shouting things like "sit down!" "out of our way")

The plot was fairly simple. It started off in a two story house with a ladder for front steps; there is, however, a secret behind these steps, if you go down to the 'basement' you can somehow go through the walls and knock down the staircase! Don't ask me how it's done, ask the governors henchmen; they did it.

This however, was only the beginning of the fun. During the play we got to observe a full range circus. With monkeys from Mongolia (a country 's in the city of North Korea – just joking, I don't know where it is) and jumping jacks from Jamaica; men that could jump through legs, and fire jugglers renowned throughout the world for their extraordinary talent of dropping their torches. While all the Ladies and gentleman gave a hand for the Moscow theatre, there was one lone Shumama (Shumama Shumama) who rebuked them for their clumsiness. Obviously the actors would have, in normal circumstances, put on a most impressive performance; they just made mistakes on purpose, because that's what they were suppose to do in the play (Right.)

The lone Shumama was actually quite an "exciting guy" (so said Isser for lack of a better description) he ripped a deer's head off of its post on the wall, and his favors consisted of pulling a pitchfork out of his friend's stomach, he even kicked a guy through bars about which he said "if I knew what they were made out of I would have escaped earlier" one of his biggest feats was staying in solitary confinement for all his whole prison term minus two days which was either a few weeks or a few months depending who was talking and when. An even bigger feat was getting to know Misha (Misha's the guy who used a Verizon telephone book for ten years thinking it was a Siddur) so well in just two days, that upon his death he cried for the first time in his life. On a parenthetic note, it has been suggested that Shumama had some black ancestry the cause for this rumour was his excessive use of the interjection Mmhhmm.

At the end of the play Isser (who was a dummy) was carried to some soft ground in a secluded spot in the forest where we were told that "no one would find us here" not even the bloodthirsty gypsy. Both the Gypsy and the Jew boy's son got to eulogise him. The Shumama told us how he was a holy Jew that spoke to g-d. Alones told us how his father gave everything for him (funny that he can't remember anything besides for Shma) "he gave up his life and gave up his religion for me."

He then died happily ever after; the end.

Young-Dovid turns his gaze,
Towards the holy city.
He-sees the torches lifted,
On the mountain tops.

The-new moon is born,
The- world anticipates,
For- us to do our task,
To sanctify this day.

Chorus:

SOLO:
Now I realize,
That time is in my hands,
To-use for good, and do whats right.
Every minute every hour
In the rebbe's ways I'll strive
To-make every moment important in my life

Every-second one-is-granted in-this world,
He-has-a -mission to fulfill, he-has a goal

So-cherish every- moment of your days
'Cause-everything that

I've not heard him too.
I want to relate, to those times you lived.
Father please help me, to be a chossid.

Listen my child, you can feel close,
By doing and acting as the Rebbe shows.
Follow and listen,
To all of his ways,
That's how Chassidim all of us became.

The way that He davened,
The way that He learned.
To every yid's problem
We saw that He turned.
Devotion to Mitzvos, to every detail.
This I'll try to do, this I'll try to do.

Fifty years and counting I've been observing Generations have come and gone by Families have grown up that bring me such nachas
Listen up and let me tell you why

It's here on my grounds that we've taught them so well
Only in Gan Yisroel

Wonder how it happens each time
Come home from the summer with a passion so strong
That's why I've been here so long

(T.T.T.O The Ma'amer Nigun)

The sun-is-setting down, in the outskirts of Tzfas,
The students-are preparing, to welcome the 'Shabbos-queen',
The-Ariza"I is there, he beckons to them,
To-spend-Shabbos in Yerushalayim.

His Talmidim reply, 'We're ready to follow,
But-we-must ask our wives, and seek their advice',
The Ariza"I stands up, his students-he-does-face,
'A chance for Moshiach you did waste'.

Chorus:
To follow the Rebbe, the directives he gives us,
Going-on Mivtzoim, fulfilling his Shlichus,
Putting-Tefillin on Yiden,

A-good-word you'll say, with a Bunkmate together let's play.

Dear Counselor:

It's the first day of school,
I decided to write to you,
Thinking of-the-summer,
and how-much it meant to me,

From line up to lights-out,
The excitement that-roamed -about,
I-write to-you this letter to-convey my thankfulness.

Chorus:
Thank you for caring,
And thank you for devoting,
Each-minute that I-spent with you, growing in-every-way.
The warmth that you

showed me,
The love that you gave me,
No matter where life-leads me, I will always think-of you.

Do-you remember the time,
When you took-me-out at night,
What you told me I still remember, and forever it-will remain.

The-last day on the bus,
You promised we'd keep-in-touch
I hugged you with emotion
... 'MY COUNSLER YOU'LL ALWAYS BE!'

Chorus:
Thank you for caring,
And thank you for devot-ing,
Each-minute that I-spent with you, growing in-every-way.
The warmth that you showed me,
The love that you gave me,
No matter where life-leads me, I will always think-of you

Thank you for caring...

Classic Songs

Amongst Majestic Mountains

(Tune of Acheinu (Abie Rottenberg, Lev V'Nefesh)

Amongst majestic mountains, a nation stands alone
An ending to their exile, a promise of a home
Pondering their destiny, gazing at the setting sun
Moshe stands so strong, B'nei Yisroel's רִיבָה נֶאֱמָן

He sees Eretz Yisroel, a splendid golden view
Listening intensely to HaKodosh Boruch Hu
"My dear servant Moshe, for you to enter this great land
The דִּוּר הַמִּדְבָּר from redemption forever will be banned"

"Hashem, please take my life from me
My people, they must live to see
The coming of Moshiach, and the Mikdash HaShlishi
Please pass them down through the doros
And give a Nossi my kochos
To lead them to geulah in this year of "נִפְלְאוֹת"

(Tune without words)

Standing at the Ohel, so faithful and so strong Pleading for a nation that has waited much too long Filling with courage, caring for them day by day

The Rebbe, our Moshe, stands and proudly leads the way

B'nei Yisroel, hear our cry — thundering voices, "Ad Mosai"
And join the million forces, as we're marching side by side
The Rebbe lighting up the way, the geulah we will have today
The promise of redemption in this year of נִפְלְאוֹת

With a Teehillim

(Tune of Ani Maamin (jep vol. III)

With a Tehillim he sat through the night
Pondering deeply into his plight
The Rebbe's image in front of his eyes
"Oh, where is Moshiach," he sighs

Three times a day, we would have the great zechus
The Nossi HaDor would come daven with us
"How can I live when a Shabbos goes by Without a Farbrengen," he cries

"Oh Rebbe, oh Rebbe, we need you —
Hashem, Hashem, Keil Rachum —
We're sick of this golus, can't bear any more
Why don't You open the door...

"Your children are yearning to be with You —
How long can this golus continue!
Bring the geulah, fulfilling Your vow
To bring Moshiach right now"

Repeat: Oh Rebbe...

Standing Side By Side

Tune of Kanei LeShimcha (Avraham Fried)

Standing side by side
Tears well up in their eyes
Each unaware that the other is there
Whispering a silent prayer

(Staff)

"Dear Rebbe, I want you to see
The children you entrusted to me —
Each one a jewel so precious and rare
You have placed into my care...

"To live with you every moment
Is the message I've tried to impart

To bring you lematah, together
with us
Each of us doing our part...

"Now Rebbe, the summer is over —
Now that my shlichus is through —
I ask that the spirit of Gan Yisroel
Continue in all that they do!"

(Campers)

"Dear Rebbe, I'd like you to see
How much Gan Yisroel's changed me —I'm closer to you than ever before Connected forevermore..."

"My counselor, your shliach,
inspired me
With true dedication and love
His friendship I'll treasure forever
How can I thank him enough..."

"Oy Rebbe, your Gan Yisroel
Will always find place in my heart
Its chayus and warmth will remain
with me
Its lessons I'll treasure and
guard!"

(All)
As the crowd in the Ohel does grow
Mendele turns to go
As he leaves, he sees a familiar face —
Camper and counselor embrace

"Goodbye, Gan Yisroel
Farewell to those wonderful
times
Your memories will always be part of me
Oh Gan Yisroel, goodbye"

Wake up Yidden

Wake up, Yidden, from the dream of golus
Get ready to meet Moshiach
Tzidkeinu
Geulah is coming swiftly towards us
Hinei Zeh Omeid Achar
Kosleinu
There will be no more wars, no
more will lions roar
Umol'oh Ho'oretz Dei'oh
In a Mikdash built of flame,
we'll give thanks to His Name
And march to Geulah with the Rebbe Shlita

A Small Tree Grows

(Tune of Nachamu (Tz'zil V'Zemer)

A small tree grows, it's immature
Yet raised with so much care
For these young years will set
the way
The fate of its life does lie here

A group of trees are specially raised Owned by the Nossi HaDor

With devotion and care to young children
With his love, in the machaneh
they grow

"How lucky I am, that I
chose to be here
In the Rebbe's camp, never elsewhere
With pride I stand, as the Rebbe guides me
In his chinuch I'll grow, his
chossid I'll be..."

"In Gan Yisroel, he's instilled
in my heart
A connection that never can
part
In Gan Yisroel, he's instilled
in my heart
A connection that never can
part"

As He Sits Upon the Hill

(Tune of Ke'ayal Taarog (Tz'zil V'Zemer)

As he sits upon the hill, the
camper's mind roams free
To thoughts of a summer
filled with fun
A summer, a summer yet to be
As he rises to greet the day,
together with the sun
His wandering mind travels
back, and camp has just begun

"I'll play, I'll laugh, I'll learn,
such fun will fill my day
Friendships forged, and friends anew I'll meet along
the way

My counselor teaching me, the Rebbe's at my side
Guiding every Jew
Ad Mosai we shout out loud,
giving us strength anew"

His counselor's voice beckons
him from thoughts so far away
"The bus is full, go take your seat
We're going home, we're going
home today"
As the camper looks with tears,
his ticket in his hand
"What could have happened to
my dream, I do not understand...
"The flag waves against the
sky, surrounded by the clouds
The bunk stands so cold and bare, and the lake makes no sound
But I can smile as we leave, as hard as it may seem Knowing that I'll be back next year, and relive my dream"

Oh Dovid

Oh Dovid, I send you this letter
Expressing my pain and despair
To thank you for teaching me
how to survive
All the troubles I meet everywhere

My parents don't want me to
daven
They tell me to do something instead That's when I tell them the things that I've learned Those wonderful things that you've said

Chazak ve'ematz, always remember

Be strong in your trust, not a
pretender
You cannot just take, you also must give
Only then, have you learned
how to live

But my parents don't see that
I'm filled with emotion
And serving Hashem with a total devotion
You've cleared all my doubts,

you've answered my dreams
Now I know what a Jew really means

I'm laughed at because of my Kippah
My friends make me feel like
a fool
They don't understand why I wear it all day
Why I don't take it off after school

At home, I make sure we keep Kosher
But few of my friends do the same
They hide their religion
where no one can see How I wish they could hear
you explain—

Repeat: Chazak ve'ematz...

But so many are lost in a world of confusion
Their faith isn't real, it's just
an illusion
I cry for them all, I pity them
so
For the beautiful things they don't know

It is true that they're lost, in a world of confusion
Their faith isn't real, it's just
an illusion
Don't cry for them all, but

teach them to do
The beautiful laws of the Jew

A Tear Runs Down His Cheek

(Tune of Niggun Shabbos VeY-omtov (Sefer HaNiggunim, entry #96)

A tear runs down from his cheek
"Oh Hashem, it's another week —
Shabbos is passing, the Rebbe did not speak..."

Days, weeks, then months go by
How long must your children cry
Beseeching, demanding, "Ad Mosai, it's enough!"

Where is that hand to which millions do come
Where is the voice that unites us all as one?
Our hearts pouring out as we cry to Hashem
"The Rebbe zol zein gezunt, and be with us again!"

On Sunday a man arrives
With hope in his troubled eyes
"Excuse me, please tell me, the Rebbe's help I seek —

"I've come to the Rebbe's door
His berachah I need once more..."

Unanswered, he lifts his eyes,
and desperately does cry
Repeat: Where is that hand...

Boruch I Write to You

(Tune of Eishes Chayil)

Boruch, I write to you this letter
In answer to your question when we were together
"How is it that I am not ashamed
My Yiddishkeit to openly proclaim"

On a busy street corner to stand
Asking every Yid to lay tefillin on his hand
My tzitzis hanging proudly in sight
Never shy to do what is right

Knowing that I am a chossid
Connected to the Rebbe I live with A feeling of pride within me
Lifting me, helping me, wherever I may be

I'm a chossid in the Rebbe's army
Fulfilling my mission proudly
Boruch, this letter is not done
A chossid you must become

Repeat: Knowing that I am a chossid...

A Small Cup of Wine

(Tune of Niggun Shabbos VeY-omtov (Nichoach 5/1/6)

A small cup of wine he holds in his hand
Young Mendele at a Farbrenge does stand
Thousands of men, standing in awe
Their attention to the Rebbe is drawn

Though Mendel stood there, his mind was elsewhere
To hear the Farbrenge he did not care
He just could not wait until it was done
So he could go home and have fun

He'd walk down the street, his friends he would meet
They'd teach him to lie, and they'd teach him to cheat
He'd look to all sides to be sure no one saw
Then, Mendel would break every law

It occurred to him, at a Farbrenge one week
"After all, it's to me that the Rebbe does speak
His words, to my heart I must take What a difference in me, they will make..."

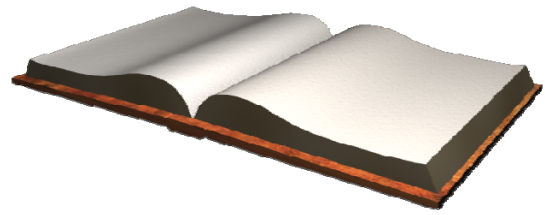

"How can I stand every week, and ignore
The words being said by the Nossi Hador!"
He decides, with tears in his eyes
"Enough of my cheating and lies"

Diary

JUST LAST NIGHT AS WE WERE PUTTING TOGETHER THE FINISHING TOUCHES ON THIS YEARS JOURNAL A COUNSLER FROM ONE OF THE OLDER BUNKS CAME RUNNING OVER TO US WITH TEARS IN HIS EYES. HE HANDED US A NOTEBOOK AND ASKED US TO TAKE A LOOK AT IT. WE STARTED READING AND RELIZED WHY HE HAD COME TO US. HERE LIED THE DIARY OF A CAMPER WHO IS A SHLIACH FAR AWAY FROM ANY JEWISH

EDUCATION AND FRUM COMMUNITY WHO CAME TO CAMP FOR THE FIRST TIME THIS YEAR. HE DECIDED TO GIVE IT TO HIS COUNSLER AS A GIFT LAST NIGHT TO SHOW HIM HOW THIS SUMMER CHANGED HIS LIFE. AFTER READING THRU IT WE RELIZED THIS CAMPER'S RARE TALENT IN EXPRESSING HIS FEELINGS IN WRITING. WE WISH THAT WE COULD PRINT THE WHOLE THING BUT ITS NOT POSSIBLE SO WE PRINT-

ED A THE FIRST AND LAST THREE THAT WE FELT WOULD REALLY BE WORTH SHARING TO SHOW THE DIFFERENCE OF HOW HE FELT IN THE BEGINGING AND HIS FEELINGS NOW. ENJOY AND SOME OF YOU MAY RELIZE THAT THE FEELINGS OF THIS YOUNG BOY ECHO THOSE OF YOUR HEART. (THE ONLY CHANGES MADE WERE SPELLING MISTAKES)

I'm so nervous and excited ok let me explain. It's my first day in camp ever. Right before I boarded the plane from home my father explained to me what a zuches it is to be in the Rebbe's camp. When I got to Parksville we were right away directed to the shul. Just imagine I was with 300 kids who I didn't know with out my parents and so far from home (at least I have my diary for comfort). I wanted to leave right then. But before I was able to start crying the head counselor got up and made a whole long, scary speech about camp (I was shaking with fear, I thought camp was supposed to be fun?). Next we were all split into bunks. I was put in bunk * with counselors * and *. We all marched up the hill to our new house for the next two months. After I got my bags I started to meet my summer family (you know my bunk and counselors). What lights out already? O.k. I guess we'll pick it up from hear tomorrow. Good night!

I'll make this quick because I only have ten minutes before learning class resumes. This morning after שחרית (never knew davening could be so loud and have so many songs) and breakfast we were called back to the shul. That was my first introduction to the learning directors (maybe I could have done without meeting them). That Yossi Pearlstein knows how to scream (but he does not know how to smile). Well either way I was sent to kuvetzah* with learning teacher* and right when we got to our location we heard more rules and then started learning (am I in school or camp?). Now I officially decided that after lunch I'm calling home and leaving camp, it's just not for me. Oh there goes the p.a. 10, 9, 8.

I didn't get a chance to write my thoughts yesterday. My days are just so packed with fun and games. I can't believe its erev shabbos already and I don't know why I was thinking of leaving. (Or should I say I just wasn't thinking when I said that earlier this week?) I mean where else in the entire world can you have fun while learning and I don't mean only by learning class cause a whole day I learn about yiddishkeit even while I play just from the way we all have to and of course do act here. Like the fact that picking up a fallen yarmulke goes before scoring the open shot that can win the game. Or how about how you can earn late nights from davening marriv good. Now I realize what this camp is all about. Wow look at the time I have to do my job for bed-side and call home and write a letter and like a billion other things.

The most unbelievable thing happened today. Right when learning classes began one of my favorite staff members, Rabbi Barras showed up by my class. Now I thought it was just one of Rabbi Barras typical visits (although none of his visits are really typical there really more amazing story telling, lesson learning, so cool yet understandable learning classes). But this one was just out of this eruv (pun intended). Hold on; hold your horses I'll explain. He took us during learning class time on a nature hike thru the woods. Now I was thinking the same thing you're probably thinking now what does learning class have to do with a hike? I found out pretty quickly (and I mean quickly because boy did we run). First we were shown the whale rock. Yep rumor has it that the giant unarmous fish who ate Yonah decided to park himself in the Rebbe's forest. Next we got to see the Baal Shem Tov's shul and mikvah and even got to stick our feed in the water (now I realized our mikvah isn't so cold). We then went on to see the yetzar tov/yetzer raah tree and we all made it to the other side where we jumped all the way into the ים של תורה while singing the 12 pesukim. As we were approaching camp I heard the familiar siren "learning never ends learning never ends" how upsetting (that's right I said that siren was upsetting). Now as I looked at the forest behind my bunk house right before lights out I realized what my teacher meant when he said the Baal Shem Tov said we can learn from everything in the world. Oh, I got to go Mully just walked in and I can't let him catch me.

Imagine my shock when right before davening today learning director Yossi Pearlstein walked into the shul to make an announcement. He said that the campers who head exceeded in there learning classes would receive a special trip today. When my name was called out I followed Yossi out of the shul to the BMD dining room where we finished shacrais and then had a quick breakfast. We were told to go up the hill and prepare ourselves for an amazing trip to... banana boating! I quickly got my bating suit and robe and boarded the bus of camp driver Lazar Raksin who drove us to the lake where we were going to enjoy our day. Let me tell you did we enjoy our day. We went flipping and flying and zooming and speeding and yep we got drenched. Wow it was exciting. We returned to camp with renewed) חייית and slightly drained of חייית from all the energy involved in the morning) and right in time for my favorite activity baseball. Have a good night I have to rest up now from my super day.

No way it's over already? It feels like it just begun. After all the exciting things from making new friends to the staff play and all the trips and activities to color war and the list just goes on. I really don't want it to end. I don't like admitting this but I feel tears rolling down my cheeks as I write this. I'll miss Gan Israel until I'll come back. But there is one comforting feeling and that is how I can bring Gan Israel home with me by living the lessons I learned and keeping in touch with all the friends I made. Still I can't picture leaving I'll miss it too much. I remember how on the first day the only one I could express my feelings to was you but now I have so many people my age and older then me who I know care about me and I can always feel comfortable around in hard times and even better and IY"H much more often happy times. Everyday by lineup we would sing that song with that line "Gan Yisroel has instilled in my heart a connection that never can part" and I never thought about how true it was until this morning. I'll really miss Gan Israel.
